

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of large media corporations attempting to manipulate our democracy.

Incidentally, the media is doing a horrible job of keeping the public informed, and instead simply acts as a mouthpiece for government or corporate interests. This is not surprising since large corporate interests control the media.

The FCC is doing a horrible job of regulating the communications industry.